Master Plan – Final Community Workshop

At the workshop, consultant BFJ Planning will present preliminary recommendations contained within several draft chapters of the Master Plan that are available for public review on a website dedicated to the Plan, <http://stamfordmasterplan.org/>. The draft chapters that will be available for review include:

- Stamford Today (Demographics/Land Use and Zoning)
- A Regional Center (Economic Development/Transportation)
- Neighborhoods
- Housing
- Proposed Land Use Plan

This workshop will differ from the last ones in that there will be no small group discussions like at the last workshops. Instead, after their presentation, representatives of the consultant team will be available in an 'open house' format for informal discussion about their draft recommendations at separate tables for each major topic.
