Administrative & Operations Report

Assistant Chief Redd informed the Commissioner about two outstanding Patrol cases. One on January 5, 2023 where there was a call for a Domestic Assault. Officer Kuhn and Miller found 110 credit cards, 5 cellphones, 5 safes, 2 ID's that were fraudulent, 9m firearm with a magazine of 13 rounds, $200,000 and after getting a search warrant opened the safes and found another $773,000 in cash. Great work by Officers and Squad C.

On January 28, 2023 Midnight received a call that a man shot himself in the hand while cleaning his gun. Officers got an arrest warrant for him and took into possession 77 guns and rules that were in his possession. He purchased them legally and has a permit which was taken. Another great arrest by Patrol.

Assistant Chief Conklin spoke about a robbery on January 11, 2023 of a 68 year old Ferguson Library employee who was walking home when a young man on a bicycle aggressively grabbed her bag and pushed her to the ground. Victim sustained facial fractures, cuts and bruises.

Community Engagement

Assistant Chief Redd commented on how very active in the Community our Community Outlook team has been. They recently have been to schools, spoke to Brownies and Cub Scout Troops.

Old/New Business

Lt. Gasparino informed the Commission that we have four spots in the State Academy in April 2023. I/A currently had 160 candidates, after background checks, etc. we have 30. This week and next the Poly and Psych tests will be given. Mid March the Commission should have ~20 candidates to interview.

Commissioner Fedele inquired as to how many retirements we have coming up. Chief Shaw said at least a dozen.

Commissioner Bass commended Chief Shaw on his quick response to the Memphis incident and the statement he made.

Commissioner Fedele made a motion to adjourn at 5:56pm second by Commissioner Bass

Next Commission Meeting is March 6, 2023

Submitted,
