Eugene Molgano inquired about an employee who is retiring and bought back three (3) years of military service and is being told by Hooker & Holcombe that the amount he paid for the buy-back is incorrect. The employee contributed 4% instead of 7% called for by the collective bargaining agreement.

Clemon Williams – Next week there is a meeting to discuss this.

George Bernardo – When Lisa Reynolds was here I brought to her attention individuals who bought back time and had the check made out to themselves. She indicated that she was aware of it and was looking at all buy-backs. Are there any other employees in this same situation?

Eugene Molgano – We keep bringing up at the meetings we have not received our pension statements for 2011.

Clemon Williams – I will inquire with Hooker and Holcombe about when the pension statements will be ready. I will also find out for the future when you can expect them. I will have an answer for the March 14th meeting.

- I. Timothy Desmond and Matthew Corona of O'Connor Davies – 2012 Audit report. Reconciliation and review should be recorded and reconciled monthly. Monitor employer contributions made to the fund.
